

Honda Racing Line – Membership Information

Honda Performance Development is pleased to announce a new initiative targeted at expanding its presence in the grassroots motorsports market. This new initiative is called the Honda Racing Line. The Honda Racing Line is a club targeted at participants in the amateur and entry-level professional racing ranks who race Honda or Acura cars. The Honda Racing Line will provide its members with a direct connection to Honda Performance Development and its unparalleled record of success at the pinnacle levels of motorsport. This channel to factory support will offer Honda Racing Line members the opportunity to purchase racing-performance parts for expedited delivery.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible to purchase parts from Honda Performance Development you must be:

- A registered member of the Honda Racing Line
- Able to prove current membership in a nationally recognized sanctioning body

Race results must include:
